

Power of attorney from Account holder to Administrator

If nothing else is stated below, the power of attorney always covers all customer numbers at First Card.

Customer (the "Account holder")

If the Account holder is a sole trader, the Account holder will automatically be appointed Administrator. If any other person is to be appointed as Administrator, the Account holder shall state the name and personal data of the Administrator in this Power of Attorney, to be signed by the Account holder.

Company name in full	Business organisation number
Power of attorney's period of validity: Unless a time-limited period of validity is stated, the power of attorney is valid until further notice. Written revocation is required.	Limited period of validity (YYYY.MM.DD - YYYY.MM.DD)
This power of attorney replaces any power of attorney from Account holder to Administrator previously in force

Administrator (the "Administrator")

Personal data for Administrator
First name and surname (printed)	National identity number	Mobile phone number	E-mail address

The Account holder and Nordea have entered into a First Card Company Agreement (the "Agreement"). The terms used in this power of attorney shall have the same meaning as defined in First Card Corporate General Terms and Conditions. The Account holder acknowledges that the Account holder is solely responsible for informing the Administrator of the Agreement and the relevant terms and conditions and any amendments thereto.

The Account holder is represented by an Administrator through Channels, through other remote communication methods and in all interactions with First Card Customer Service. The Customer may authorize one or several Administrators. The Administrator may in turn authorize contact persons by written power of attorney in a form specified by N/FC.

Authorisation

The Account holder appoints the above-named individual as Administrator with full access rights, as described below, to the Account holder's engagement with N/FC. The Administrator is also authorized to represent the Account holder in administrative matters concerning First Card and register and confirm information regarding contact persons and is authorized to appoint and authorize contact persons to interact with First Card Support on behalf of the Account holder.

Description of authorisation
The Administrator has access to information on all the Account holders engagement with N/FC. Furthermore, the Administrator has access to information on all contact persons and their authority to represent the Account holder. The Administrator is appointed a full access profile that allows the Administrator to: Cards* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify and verify the identity of cardholders. - Change Account holder contact information (if applicable) and register change of company address.
- Manage and request changes to products and services.

Excluding First Card Private Liability Card.*

Restrictions of authorisation

The Administrator may not approve, sign or otherwise execute any application, amendment, request, or administrative action relating to his or her own card. The Administrator is likewise prohibited from performing any action in the Channels, through other remote communication methods or through First Card Customer Service that concerns the issuance, modification or management of his or her own card or cardholder agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrator may terminate his or her own card and the associated cardholder agreement.

The Administrator shall use the Security solution as prescribed in the First Card Terms and Conditions to access and use Channels, remote communication methods, and First Card Customer Service.
